

Purpose

All income information provided on your 2022-23 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students is used to determine the amount and type of your OSAP funding. The ministry verifies income information provided on the application.

Your spouse must complete this form in either of the following situations:

- The ministry was unable to verify your spouse's income with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA)
- The ministry indicated that your spouse must provide information so their Canadian non-taxable and/or foreign income (see definition below) can be verified.

How to complete this form

This form has 3 sections.

- Section A: Provide basic information about yourself, as well as the name of the school that you're attending during your 2022-23 study period. Your signature is required to confirm that you agree with the declaration statement.
- Section B: Spouse must provide basic information about themselves, as well as their 2021 income. Their signature is required to confirm agreement with the declaration statement.
- Section C: Required documents. Documentation is required based on the response provided by spouse.

How to submit this form

You can upload your completed form and all required documents online. Log into the OSAP website and go to your application to use the "Print or upload documents" button. Or, you can submit a paper copy as follows:

If you're going to a school in Ontario:

Send this completed form and all attachments to your school's Financial Aid Office.

If you're going to a school outside of Ontario:

Send this completed form and all attachments to: Student Financial Assistance Branch, Ministry of Colleges and Universities, PO Box 4500, 189 Red River Road, 4th Floor, Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7B 6G9.

Deadline

This form and all required documents must be received no later than 12 months after the start of your 2022-23 study period. If the income information cannot be verified, Ontario Student Grant funding you receive may be converted to a loan that you must repay. See the terms and conditions of the Master Student Financial Assistance Agreement (MSFAA) for more information.

Section C: Required documentation

Part 1: Spouse’s Canadian non-taxable income was greater than zero

Spouse must provide this completed form along with documents and/or statements issued by the agency, financial institution, organization or government department recording the 2021 Canadian non-taxable income. Documents must indicate the source and amount of income, and additional information below as applicable:

- If the Canadian non-taxable income is from child-support payments, spouse must also provide a copy of their separation agreement or court order detailing the amount and frequency of the support payments during the 2021 year.
 - If the separation/divorce agreement or court order was dated more than one year ago, spouse may submit the outdated documentation along with confirmation of the payments received during the 2021 year.
 - If the separation/divorce agreement or court order is not available, spouse must provide:
 - Documentation confirming the payments received in 2021 (e.g. bank statements, copies of void cheques) and one of the following:
 - a dated and signed letter from the payor confirming the value, reason and total for all payments made during the 2021 year; or
 - an affidavit (see definition below) from spouse confirming the value, reason and total for all payments received during the 2021 year.
- If the Canadian non-taxable income is from a scholarship or bursary, spouse must provide a copy of documents confirming the source and amount of the award (e.g. award notification, award funds transfer to their account).
- If spouse indicates 2021 income earned that is tax-exempt under the Indian Act, they must provide a copy of their 2021 T4 slip showing the amount in Box 71 or a letter from their employer (on the employer’s letterhead) that specifies their total amount of 2021 income earned that is tax-exempt under the Indian Act.

Canadian non-taxable income/foreign income includes the following:

- income earned in a country other than Canada (employment income, rental income or gains from investments);
- child support received;
- income earned on a First Nations Reserve in Canada;
- lottery winnings totalling over $3,600;
- gifts and inheritances totalling over $3,600;
- life insurance compensation;
- strike pay received from a union;
- interest, dividends or capital gains from a tax-free savings account (TFSA) or investments of any type (for example stocks, bonds or GICs) regardless of the original source of the income.
- settlements from lawsuits (entire amount for economic loss and portion for non-economic loss/pain and suffering/general damages over $100,000).

- Spouses and parents are expected to report scholarships as non-taxable income if the scholarships were not reported in Line 15000 on their income tax return.
