

Ontario Student Assistance Program

2024-25

OSAP Application for Full-Time Students

- For students taking 60% or more of a full course load (40% or more of a full course load for students with a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability)
- For programs starting anytime between August 1, 2024 and July 31, 2025

What is OSAP?

The Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) is a financial aid program that can make it easier for students to go to college or university. Both the provincial and federal governments provide this money. The program offers funding for school through two kinds of money:

- Grants: Money that you keep
- Loan: Money that you pay back

By completing this OSAP application, you're automatically considered for both grants and a loan.

Who can use this application?

Use this application to apply for funding through OSAP. In order to use this application, you must be:

- Taking 60% or more of a full course load (or 40% or more of a full course load if you have a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability).
- Taking a program that starts anytime between August 1, 2024 and July 31, 2025.
- Enrolled in a program that is at least 12 weeks long.
- Going to a postsecondary school that is approved for OSAP. Go to the OSAP website (ontario.ca/osap) and select "Approved schools" to find out if your school is approved for OSAP.
- An Ontario resident who is a Canadian Citizen, Permanent Resident or Protected Person.

Financial assistance information for students with disabilities

Students with disabilities may be eligible for additional funding to help pay for their postsecondary education. If you have a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability, you could be eligible for full-time OSAP funding if you're studying at 40% or more of a full course load.

Instructions

Follow the instructions below to ensure that your OSAP Application for Full-Time Students is processed without delay.

Step 1: Application form

Complete and sign all required sections of this application form. Definitions are provided at the end of this package and are identified throughout the application. A complete application includes the following:

- All pages of the application form.
- Your (and your spouse's/parent's, if applicable) signed Consents, Declarations and Signature pages.

Step 2: Required documents

Documents may be required to support the information that you provided in the application. If documentation is required, the question will be labelled accordingly. You can find complete details about required documents after the application form.

Step 3: Program information form

If you are going to school outside of Ontario (see exceptions below), you must send the Program Information Form (PIF) that appears on page 44 to your school.

- As the completed PIF must be included as part of your application package, you must request that the school return the form to you.

Exceptions:

If you are going to McGill University (Quebec), Concordia University (Quebec) or Dalhousie University (Nova Scotia), your school does not need to complete the Program Information Form.

Step 4: Submit your application

Your completed application package must be received by your financial aid office no later than 60 days before the end of your 2024-25 study period.

- If you're going to school in Ontario, send your application package to the financial aid office at your school.

What's next

Your application will be processed to ensure that all information is complete and valid. Some of the information that you provide (e.g., name and income) will be verified with third parties.

The ministry will mail you information about the status of your application. To stay up-to-date on the latest status of your OSAP account, you can check online at ontario.ca/osap. To access your online account, you'll need your OSAP Access Number (OAN) and password. If you don't know your OAN and/or password, you can do one of two things:

- Go to, or book a videoconference appointment (if available) with a financial aid office at any public college or university in Ontario to get your OAN and/or a temporary password. You must present proof of your Social Insurance Number (SIN) and government-issued photo identification to confirm your identity; or
- Complete the "OSAP Website: Forgot Password and/or OSAP Access Number" form to get your OAN and/or a temporary password by mail. This form is available on the OSAP website under the "Forms" section.

Definitions

Allowances and other transitional support:

Allowances and other transitional supports are provided by Children's Aid Societies (sometimes referred to as Child and Family Service Agencies) in Ontario to youth leaving care. The supports are currently provided through the Ready, Set, Go program (formerly Continued Care and Support for Youth).

American Sign Language (ASL):

Manual language with its own syntax and grammar, used primarily by people who are deaf.

Bankruptcy or related event:

If you initiated a bankruptcy or a related event, this means you have filed for bankruptcy under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (BIA), made a consumer proposal under the BIA that is approved or deemed to be approved by a court under that Act, obtained a consolidation order under the BIA or filed a document seeking relief for the orderly payment of debts.

Children's Aid Society or Child and Family Services Agency:

Children's Aid Societies in Ontario (sometimes referred to as Child and Family Services agencies) as well as similar agencies or government departments in other provinces/territories (such as, child protection services, child welfare) have legal authority to protect children from abuse and neglect.

A child who is in the custody and care of a Children's Aid Society (or Child and Family Services agency) has been removed from a home where they faced either a risk of harm or experienced harm. Children who are taken into care may be placed with other family members, family friends, foster homes or group homes, or may be adopted.

Common-law relationship:

You are living in a common-law relationship if you and your spouse:

- will have lived together in a spousal relationship continuously for a period of at least three years as of your first day of classes, or
- have lived together in a spousal relationship of some permanence and are the natural or adoptive parents of a child.

Course load:

Your school determines the number of courses or credits that make up a full course load (100% course load). Your course load refers to the number of courses or credits you are taking.

For example, to complete a typical university program in the standard amount of time, a student is required to take 5 courses each term for four years. If a student enrolls in four courses each term, the student is taking 4/5 courses = an 80% course load.

As a general rule,

- 5 courses = 100% course load
- 4 courses = 80% course load
- 3 courses = 60% course load
- 2 courses = 40% course load
- 1 course = 20% course load

For OSAP purposes, you're in full-time studies if you're taking 60% or more of a full course load. If you have a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability, you may choose to be considered a full-time student if you're taking at least 40% of a full course load.

Contact your financial aid office if you need help determining your course load percentage.

Current citizenship:

Canadian Citizen: A Canadian citizen is a person who is Canadian by birth or who has applied for Canadian citizenship through Citizenship and Immigration Canada and has received a citizenship certificate. You are probably a Canadian citizen if you were born in Canada. You may also be a Canadian citizen if you were born outside Canada to a Canadian parent.

Permanent Resident: A permanent resident is someone who is not a Canadian citizen but has the right to enter and remain in Canada. Permanent residents are citizens of other countries. A permanent resident must live in Canada for two years of every five years or risk losing their permanent resident status. A Record of Landing form (issued prior to 2002), Confirmation of Permanent Residence form, and Permanent Resident Card all provide official proof of status of permanent residency in Canada.

Protected Person: Protected Persons are individuals who hold a valid Verification of Status document issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada or a valid Protected Persons Status Document issued prior to January 1, 2013. A decision letter (“Notice of Decision”) from the Immigration and Refugee Board (IRB) is also a valid form of identification. Protected Persons can include convention refugees, humanitarian-protected persons abroad, and persons in need of protection. A person in need of protection is a person in Canada whose removal to their country of nationality or former habitual residence will make them subject to the possibility of torture, risk of life, or risk of cruel and unusual treatment or punishment. A Protected Person is defined in subsection 95(2) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada).

Customary care:

Customary care is a culturally appropriate placement option for First Nations, Inuk, and Métis children and youth determined to be in need of protection who cannot remain in the care of their parents. In customary care arrangements, the child or youth is cared for by a person who is not the child’s parent, according to the customs of the child’s band or First Nations, Inuit or Métis community. Customary care arrangements are supervised pursuant to a customary care agreement between a children’s aid society and the child or youth’s band or First Nations, Inuit, or Métis community.

Dependent children:

A dependent child is your and/or your spouse’s natural or adoptive child who is living with you at least 50% of the time during your study period and is:

- under 18 years of age; or
- 18 years of age or older, single; and
 - is enrolled in high school and taking at least 60% of a full course load; or
 - is a full-time college or university student and has been out of high school less than six years (if the child moved away to go to school and you are separated or divorced, you must be the parent(s) that the child last lived with); or
 - has a disability and is wholly dependent on you.

If the child has worked full-time at paid employment for 24 months in a row when they were not a full-time high school, college or university student the child is not considered a dependent child.

To be wholly dependent, a child over the age of 18 must meet all of the following conditions:

- The child is single and lives with the student;
- The child is, by reason of a mental or physical disability, dependent on others for their personal needs and care; and
- The child is claimed by the student or spouse for tax purposes and Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) has accepted the child as being wholly dependent upon the student for tax purposes.

- restricts your ability to perform the daily activities necessary to pursue studies at a postsecondary school level or to participate in the labour force, and
- is expected to remain with you for your expected life.

If you self-identify as a student with a disability but your disability is not permanent (see definition above), then select “No” to the question “Is your disability permanent?”.

Persistent or prolonged disability:

A persistent or prolonged disability mean any impairment, including a physical, mental, intellectual, cognitive, learning, communication or sensory impairment—or a functional limitation—that:

- restricts your ability to perform the daily activities necessary to pursue studies at a postsecondary school level or to participate in the labour force, and
- has lasted, or is expected to last, for a period of at least 12 months, but
- is not expected to remain with you for your expected life.

Discharged or fully performed bankruptcy-related event:

- Bankruptcy: your bankruptcy (or related event) has been discharged if you have completed the conditions outlined in your bankruptcy assignment or order and you have been issued a certificate of discharge by your trustee.
- Consumer Proposal: your Consumer Proposal has been fully performed if you have completed the conditions outlined in your Consumer Proposal and you have been issued a Certificate of Full Performance by your trustee. This document is proof that you satisfied all of the terms of your Consumer Proposal.

Extended Society Care (previously Crown Ward):

Under the Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017, when a child has been placed in extended society care with a children’s aid society under a court order, the Crown has the rights and responsibilities of a parent for the purpose of the child’s care, custody and control.

The individual remains under the legal care of a children’s aid society until they leave care at age 18 or marry, whichever comes first.

Foreign income and Canadian non-taxable income includes:

- income earned in a country other than Canada that has not been reported to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) through line 10400 (e.g., employment income, rental income or interests, dividends and capital gains from investments)
