

Purpose

Have you failed the credit check on your 2022-23 OSAP application?

You can request a review of your failed credit check if all of the following apply:

- Your financial difficulties were due to circumstances beyond your control.
- You are now financially stable.
- You will be able to repay any further student loans that may be issued to you.

Important:

Before you complete this form, contact your financial aid office. Let them know you would like to request a review of your failed credit check. They will request a copy of your credit report from the credit reporting agency contracted by the Ministry of Colleges and Universities (the ministry). After your report is reviewed, your financial aid office will then let you know if you need to complete this form.

Required documents

You must provide documentation to support your review request. Documentation requirements are included in Sections B, C and D.

Include your name and student number on each required document you submit with your review.

How to submit this form

You can upload your completed form online. Log into the OSAP website and go to your application to use the “Print or upload documents” button. Or, you can submit a paper copy as follows:

If you’re going to a school in Ontario:

Send your completed form and all required document(s) to your school’s financial aid office.

If you’re going to a school outside of Ontario:

Send your completed form and required document(s) to: Credit Check Review, Student Financial Assistance Branch, Ministry of Colleges and Universities, 77 Wellesley Street West, Box 276, Toronto, Ontario M7A 1N3.

Deadline

If you have submitted an OSAP Application for Full-Time Students or an OSAP Application for Part-Time Students, this form and all required documents must be received by your financial aid office or the ministry no later than 40 days before the end of your 2022-23 study period.

If you have submitted an OSAP Application for Micro-credentials, this form and all required documents must be received no later than 5 days after the end of your 2022-23 study period.
