

Purpose

Normally, your spouse's 2016 income information is used when assessing your 2017-18 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students. Use this form to request that your spouse's estimated 2017 income be used instead of their 2016 income in the assessment of your 2017-18 full-time application.

You can make this request if your spouse's financial situation changed in 2017 because of unexpected and/or one-time circumstances, such as:

- loss of full-time employment and/or new employment at a lower pay rate;
- illness, accident or retirement; and/or
- receipt of a severance package, insurance settlement or other one-time income payout.

If this request is accepted, your spouse's 2017 estimated income will be used to determine your eligibility for Canada-Ontario Integrated Student loans and Ontario grants.

In order to complete this form, you must have already submitted a 2017-18 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students.

Required Documents

Your spouse must provide a letter explaining the unexpected and/or one-time circumstances that caused a difference between their 2016 and 2017 income. This letter must be signed and dated by your spouse.

Your spouse must also provide documentation (e.g. letter from employer, legal documents) that supports their 2017 income estimate and the circumstances outlined in their letter.

Verification of Income

The ministry verifies income information provided for your application. If your spouse's 2017 income can't be verified with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), they must complete the 2017-18 Spouse Income Verification: Foreign and/or Non-taxable Income form.

If the ministry cannot verify your spouse's income within 12 months from the start of your 2017-18 study period, any Ontario Student Grant you receive may be converted to a loan that you must repay.
