

Purpose

All income information provided on your 2018-19 OSAP Application for Full-Time Students is used to determine the amount and type of your OSAP funding. The ministry verifies income information provided on the application.

If your spouse's income can't be verified with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), they must complete this form. This includes signing the declaration and providing the required documents.

How to complete this form

This form has 3 sections.

- Section A: Provide basic information about yourself, as well as the name of the school that you're attending during your 2018-19 study period. Your signature is required to confirm that you agree with the declaration statement.
- Section B: Spouse must provide basic information about themselves, as well as their 2017 income. Their signature is required to confirm agreement with the declaration statement.
- Section C: Required documents. Documentation is required based on the response provided by spouse.

How to submit this form

You can upload your completed form and all required documents online. Log into the OSAP website and go to your application to use the "Print or upload documents" button. Or, you can submit a paper copy as follows:

If you're going to a school in Ontario:

Send this completed form and all attachments to your school's Financial Aid Office.

If you're going to a school outside of Ontario:

Send this completed form and all attachments to: Student Financial Assistance Branch, Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities, PO Box 4500, 189 Red River Road, 4th Floor, Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7B 6G9.

Deadline

This form and all required documents must be received no later than 12 months after the start of your 2018-19 study period. If the income information cannot be verified, Ontario Student Grant funding you receive may be converted to a loan that you must repay. See the terms and conditions of the Master Student Financial Assistance Agreement (MSFAA) for more information.

Your personal information will be used to administer and finance the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) as set out in the notice of Collection and Use of Personal Information on your spouse’s OSAP application form and in accordance with the consents you signed on your spouse’s OSAP application form. The Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities administers and finances OSAP under the legal authority set out on your spouse’s OSAP application form. If you have any questions about the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information, contact the Director, Student Financial Assistance Branch, Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities, PO Box 4500, 189 Red River Road, Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7B 6G9; 807- 343-7260.

Section C: Required documentation

Part 1: Spouse’s Canadian non-taxable income was greater than zero

Spouse must provide this completed form along with documents issued by the agency, organization or government department recording the 2017 non-taxable income information:

- If the non-taxable income is from child-support payments, spouse must also provide a copy of their separation agreement or court order detailing the amount and frequency of the support payments.
- If the non-taxable income is from a scholarship or bursary, spouse must provide a copy of documents confirming the source and amount of the award (e.g. award notification, award funds transfer to their account).
- If spouse is a Status Indian who earned 2017 income on a First Nations Reserve in Canada, they must provide a letter from their employer (on the employer’s letterhead) that specifies their total amount of 2017 income earned while working on a First Nations reserve.

Part 2: Spouse’s foreign income (non-Canadian source) was greater than zero and not reported to CRA

Spouse must provide this completed form along with the following documentation as applicable:

- Proof of their 2017 income from a foreign (non-Canadian) source with documentation issued by that country’s government/tax agency. Working copies of tax documents and/or tax returns are not acceptable.
- Official documentation from their employer that specifies the gross income (before any deductions) they received in 2017. The documentation must be on the employer’s letterhead or other official format.

If spouse’s 2017 foreign income was from self-employment, investments, rental income or other means, they must provide documentation confirming the source and amount of their income. Acceptable documentation could include bank statements, letter(s) from a financial representative, lease agreements, and/or proof of rent income. This applies only if spouse is living outside of Canada and have not claimed their 2017 income to CRA.

If spouse is unable to provide their documentation by the deadline listed on page 1, they can submit an affidavit (see definition, below) that includes the following:

- The reasons why they are unable to provide the required documentation.
- The amount, currency and sources of their 2017 foreign income.

Part 3: Spouse did not receive income in 2017

Spouse must provide this completed form along with an affidavit that explains where they resided in 2017 and why they had no income in 2017. Status Indians may provide a letter from a Band Council official in lieu of an affidavit.

Definition: Affidavit

An “affidavit” is a sworn document that is signed before a lawyer, a commissioner of oaths (who may not be a lawyer), or a notary public, swearing or affirming that the contents of the affidavit are true. A commissioner of oaths is generally available at courthouses, community legal clinics, municipal or township offices, and law offices.
