

Purpose

Have you failed the credit check on your 2020-21 OSAP application?

You can request a review of your failed credit check if all of the following apply:

- Your financial difficulties were due to circumstances beyond your control.
- You are now financially stable.
- You will be able to repay any further student loans that may be issued to you.

Important:

Before you complete this form, contact your financial aid office. Let them know you would like to request a review of your failed credit check. They will request a copy of your credit report from the credit reporting agency contracted by the ministry. After your report is reviewed, your financial aid office will then let you know if you need to complete this form.

Required documents

You must provide documentation to support your review request. Documentation requirements are included in Sections B, C and D.

Include your name and student number on each required document you submit with your review.

How to submit this form

You can upload your completed form online. Log into the OSAP website and go to your application to use the “Print/Upload” feature. Or, you can submit a paper copy as follows:

Section B: Student financial history

1. History of events resulting in your financial situation

Required documentation:

There are two components to this documentation requirement.

a) Letter

You must provide a letter explaining how you ended up in the financial situation that impacted your credit rating. Your explanation must include:

- The timeline of events that caused these financial issues.
- How these events were beyond your control.

You must sign and date your letter.

b) Supporting documentation

You must provide documentation to support the events included in your letter that led to your financial issues. Examples:

- If you were laid off from your job, you would include a copy of your Record of Employment or a letter from your previous employer.
- If your marriage broke down, you would include a copy of your separation agreement or divorce judgement.
- If a third party was involved (e.g. police, social services, medical personnel), you would provide a report or letter from them.

Contact your financial aid office for further details if you are unsure of the above documentation requirements.

2. Have you ever filed for bankruptcy or initiated a related event?

Bankruptcy or related event:

If you initiated a bankruptcy or a related event, this means you have filed for bankruptcy under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (BIA), made a consumer proposal under the BIA that is approved or deemed to be approved by a court under that Act, obtained a consolidation order under the BIA or filed a document seeking relief for the orderly payment of debts.
