Section D: Required documentation

Part 1: Parent(s) Canadian non-taxable income was greater than zero.

Parent(s) must provide this completed form along with documents issued by the agency, organization or government department recording their 2019 non-taxable income information:

- If the non-taxable income is from child-support payments, parent(s) must also provide a copy of their separation agreement or court order detailing the amount and frequency of the support payments.
- If the non-taxable income is from a scholarship or bursary, parent(s) must provide a copy of documents confirming the source and amount of the award (e.g. award notification, award funds transfer to their account).
- If parent(s) is a person registered under the Indian Act who earned 2019 income on a First Nations Reserve in Canada, they must provide a copy of their 2019 T4 slip showing the amount in Box 71 or a letter from their employer (on the employer's letterhead) that specifies their total amount of 2019 income earned while working on a First Nations reserve.

Part 2: Parent's foreign income (non-Canadian source) was greater than zero and not reported to CRA

Parent(s) must provide this completed form, along with the following documentation as applicable:

- Proof of their 2019 income from a foreign (non-Canadian) source with documentation issued by that country's government/tax agency. Working copies of tax documents and/or tax returns are not acceptable.
- Official documentation from their employer that specifies the gross income (before any deductions) received by parent(s) in 2019. The documentation must be on the employer's letterhead or other official format.

If the parent's 2019 foreign income is from self-employment, investments, rental income or other means, the parent must provide documentation confirming the source and amount of the income. Acceptable documentation could include bank statements, letter(s) from a financial representative, lease agreements, and/or proof of rent income. This applies only if the parent is living outside of Canada and has not claimed their 2019 income to CRA.

If the parent(s) is unable to provide the documentation by the deadline listed on page 1, they can submit an affidavit (see definition below) that includes the following:

- The reason(s) why they are unable to provide the required documentation.
- The amount(s), currency and source(s) of their 2019 foreign income.

Part 3: Parent did not receive income in 2019

Parent(s) must provide this completed form along with an affidavit that explains where they resided in 2019 and why they had no income in 2019. Persons registered under the Indian Act may provide a letter from a Band Council official in lieu of an affidavit.

Definition: Affidavit

An "affidavit" is a sworn document that is signed before a lawyer, a commissioner of oaths (who may not be a lawyer), or a notary public, swearing or affirming that the contents of the affidavit are true. A commissioner of oaths is generally available at courthouses, community legal clinics, municipal or township offices, and law offices.
